

FEBRUARY 5, 1829.

Read twice, and committed to the Committee of the Whole House to which is committed the bill [No. 379] for the relief of Andrew Wilson.

Mr. CAMBRELENG, from the Committee on Commerce, reported the following bill :

A BILL

For the relief of Henry Dickins and others.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives
2 of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That
3 the Collector of the customs for the district of New London,
4 in Connecticut, is hereby authorized to pay to Henry Dick-
5 ins, Thomas Dunbar, junior, and Trustum Dickins, owners
6 of a fishing schooner, called the Whale, of sixty-eight tons 7 and sixty-eight ninety-fifths of a ton burthen, and to the per-8 sons composing her late crew, such allowance, to be distri-
9 buted according to law, as they would have been entitled to 10 receive, had she completed her fishing term ; the said schoon-
11 er having returned into port three days before the expiration 12 of the four months required, in consequence of the death of 13 one, and the sickness of three others of her crew.
